

U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission – Fast Track Recall with Health Canada

Release Date: March ??, 2025

Release Number: 25-DRAFT V2 OCM 03/07/2025

Enerco Recalls DEWALT 70,000 BTU Outdoor Portable Cordless Forced Air Propane Heaters Due to Fire and Burn Hazards

Recall Summary

Name of Product: DEWALT® 70,000-BTU Outdoor Portable Cordless Forced Air Propane Heaters

Hazard: The recalled portable heaters' operating instructions can cause consumers to incorrectly depress the start button too quickly and prevent the fan from starting, causing the heaters to overheat, posing fire and burn hazards.

Remedy: Repair

Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled heaters and contact Enerco to request new instructions and a warning sticker describing how to start the heater using the power button. The new instructions and warning sticker are also available via Enerco's website at <https://www.energogroupinc.com/recall>. Enerco and Lowe's are contacting all known purchasers directly.

Consumer Contact: Enerco at -800-964-4328 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. ET Monday through Friday, or online at <https://www.energogroupinc.com/recall> or at <https://www.energogroupinc.com> and click on "Recalls" to register and download a copy of the new instructions and warning sticker.

About the U.S. CPSC

The U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) is charged with protecting the public from unreasonable risk of injury associated with the use of thousands of types of consumer products. Deaths, injuries, and property damage from consumer product-related incidents cost the nation more than $1 trillion annually. Since the CPSC was established more than 50 years ago, it has worked to ensure the safety of consumer products, which has contributed to a decline in injuries associated with these products.

Federal law prohibits any person from selling products subject to a Commission ordered recall or a voluntary recall undertaken in consultation with the CPSC.
